CEO of Reality TV Production Companies Sentenced to One Year in Federal Prison

Defrauding Private Lender Out of $2 Mil

Los Angeles, California, 31.07.2022, 06:56 Time

USPA NEWS - The CEO of two Hollywood production companies that specialize in reality-television programming was sentenced today to 12 months and one day in federal prison for fraudulently obtaining a $2 million business loan using fabricated documents and by misrepresenting his companies' financial circumstances.

Jonathan Lee Smith, 41, of Koreatown, was sentenced by United States District Judge John F. Walter, who also ordered Smith to pay $2 million in restitution.

Smith managed and owned two Hollywood-based production companies, Hoplite Entertainment Inc., and Hoplite Inc. To convince a private lender to fund a $2 million loan in 2020, Smith falsely represented that his two companies had accounts receivable of $3,348,000, and he submitted falsified license agreements and other forgeries to back up the claim.

Based on these and other misrepresentations, the victim lender agreed to the loan and, on September 30, 2020, transferred $1,951,416 to a Hoplite Entertainment bank account.

To convince the private lender to give him additional time to repay the loan, court documents state, Smith falsely represented that payment was imminent. He also emailed a fake record showing a $100,000 wire payment from Hoplite, Inc. to the lender. In fact, the loan was never repaid.

"[Smith] is an experienced businessman in the entertainment industry," prosecutors argued in a sentencing memorandum. "He knew it was wrong to lie to secure a $2 million loan but did it anyway. And rather than make just one misrepresentation, [Smith] backed up his lie with counterfeit documents to show fake accounts receivable and fictitious incoming payments. The result was straightforward and predictable: [Smith's] financial circumstances were inadequate to repay the loan he received from the private lender, and the victim has lost $2 million because of [Smith's] false pretenses."

The FBI investigated this matter. The United States Trustee's Los Angeles Office provided assistance.

Assistant United States Attorney Alexander B. Schwab of the Major Frauds Section prosecuted this case.
